

WOOD BUFFALO COMMUNITY BENEFIT NETWORK

Community Benefit Charter

VISION

The vision is to ensure all large-scale public and private development projects in the Wood Buffalo region are aligned with the goals of recovery, designed to advance indigenous economic reconciliation and fully leveraged to deliver incremental community benefits.

MISSION

Lobby, educate, create ideas, advocate to all levels of government, business and industry, to secure opportunities to advance community benefit and social procurement in the Wood Buffalo region.

Work to deliver against the Community Benefit Charter by generating increased public value in each of the following areas through publicly funded infrastructure projects

Local Business & Sub-Trades	Indigenous Business	Apprenticeships
Indigenous Workers	Youth Skills Development & Employment	Gender - Women
Persons with Barriers	Social Enterprise Development	Site Re-Training

Background Resources

- The Changing Face of Public Sector Procurement – Sandra Hamilton
Prime Minister Justin Trudeau has included social procurement in his mandate letter to Minister Carla Qualtrough, Federal Minister of Procurement
- Social Value Infrastructure Pilot – Collaboration of three Municipalities and a Construction Association. Northworks Magazine, Spring 2017 – Northern BC Construction Magazine
- What are Community Benefits? Sandra Hamilton, Radio Interview – Hamilton, Ontario